THE LAST ORCA

"Once upon a time Blackfish roamed the Salish Sea..."

No child should ever hear this story.

"Today the carcass of the last Southern Resident Orca was found washed ashore..."

This is a headline no one should ever have to read.

Can we be assured that this won't come to pass? Are we willing to make sacrifices and commit to effective action to save these magnificent creatures?

We share much in common with the Orca, apex hunters at the top of the food chain. If there are not enough salmon to sustain them, if the water is polluted with oil, and they are incapable of hearing each other's voices because of man made noise, then they will not survive.

We are the problem. Only if we act together, in common cause, will we have a chance. Come join us and rise for climate justice.

Rise for Orca and Climate Justice!

Join us on Saturday, September 8, from 11 a.m. - 4 p.m. on Hollywood Beach and at the Feiro Marine Center for family-friendly activities centered on fossil fuels and climate change threats to our Salish Sea, orca extinction, dams, and pipeline expansion. An evening program from 7 - 9 p.m. at the Elwha Klallam Heritage Center (401 E. First St.) will be a live multi-media presentation, "The Road to Athabasca," performed by a group who rode their bikes all along the path of the Trans Mountain pipeline from Burnaby, B.C. to the Alberta Tar Sands.

Events and activities include:

- 11-noon: Bring your own picnic (fire & grill, S'mores ingredients & marshmallows provided)
- 11-4: Children's games, storytelling, and art
- Noon: Pass the orca, brief vigil and invocation, kayakers, music and songs
- 1 p.m. at Feiro Marine Life Center, guest speakers: Ken Balcomb of the Center for Whale Research; Eric de Place of Seattle's Sightline Institute; Verner Wilson of Friends of the Earth
- 7-9 p.m. "The Road to Athabasca" at the Elwha Klallam Heritage Center
